PROMPT:

Write about personal truths without using the word "I".

Mirror Image

Concentrate on what is within looking inward with a third eye, seeing within.

Concentrate on what is without looking outward with eyes seeing without.

Concentrate on the unseen looking with closed eyes seeing nothing.

Concentrate on everything looking with open eyes
seeing everything.

Concentrate on who is there looking back with eyes
seeing who is there.

Concentrate on the image
looking back with eyes
seeing the truth.
